IECnet member of the year 2015

IECnet, the international network of accountants, auditors and tax advisors, has chosen its member of the year 2015. The award goes to Sakashita International Tax Accountant Co, Tokyo, for its thorough research into the registration of the IECnet trademark in Japan.

For the past decade Sakashita International Tax Accountant Co has been providing accounting and tax consultation services focusing on international companies, in both English and Japanese, through global connections with associations such as JETRO (Japan External Trade Organization), the Tokyo Metropolitan Government, the French Embassy, and the IECnet network. “We are experts in supporting your business with exclusive services” says Ms. Hiroko Sakashita.
